

Dai Jin Clock Company (The Time Mfg. Co.) - Rare solid oak table floor clock with a 31-day mechanical movement - (circa mid-1980s)

Dai Jin Clock Company (The Time Mfg. Co.) - Table Clock

This is a rarely seen table floor clock with a very impressive and beautiful solid oak case. It was made in the 1980s by the Dai Jin Clock Co. (The Time Mfg. Co., South Korea.) The clock features a 31-day key wind mechanical movement (balance wheel lever movement which strikes on the hour.) The oak case bezel top (with the glass top lid) lifts off to access the dial and hands.) The top of the case is 27 inches in diameter and it sits 23 inches from the floor to the top. There are two doors in the base of the clock for storage. The entire clock moves smoothly on four roller wheels.
